DESCRIPTION:

Alberto and Diego Cusumano have made an international name for Cusumano as a winery, and Sicily as a region, through their meticulously crafted wines made from both indigenous and imported grape varietals. They have taken advantage of vine sites around the island to maximize varietal character in their wines. The consistent high quality has made critics and consumers around the world take notice.

TASTING NOTES:

"The 2007 Sagana (Nero d'Avola) bursts onto the palate with ripe, intensely perfumed dark red fruit, spices, new leather and French oak. With time in the glass, the classic inner perfume of Nero d'Avola emerges, adding lovely complexity and nuance that accompanies the soft, generous finish." (June, 2010)
