DESCRIPTION:

The vineyards at La Gerla lie right on the Montalcino hill right where the slope softens; a small winery which, in just a few short years, has become a great cru of this Tuscan territory surrounded by the Orcia and Ombrone Valleys. La Gerla was born from the passion of its founder, Sergio Rossi, a successful businessman in advertising and director of three top European branches of a renowned agency. He knew how to create a cru here in Montalcino where the most advanced technology unites with the knowledge of farmers and enologists to produce excellent Tuscan products.

TASTING NOTES:

"The Birba is a pure expression of Sangiovese with a lean garnet color and a simple bouquet that revolves around elements of fresh berry fruit, red currents and a light shading of smoke and spice (thanks to one year in French barrique.)" Monica Lerner ~ February 2014 / *2010 vintage, 2011 not yet rated
