DESCRIPTION:

Founded in 1986, Feudi di San Gregorio is today the symbolic mark of the enological renaissance of southern Italy and of a culture of drinking; a time of rediscovering the identity of Mediterranean flavours. A grape of great tradition, Aglianico is the most noble and important Vine of the south, representing a unifying matrix of the great southern reds and is ranked among the finest red Italian grapes. Feudi di San Gregorio is committed for years - with the technical consultation of the Universities of Napoli and Milan - in a project of recognition of the merit and rediscovery of this extraordinary grape.

TASTING NOTES:

"A snappy white, light-bodied and zesty, offering crunchy white peach, stony mineral and citrus notes." Web only, 2018 - Wine Spectator
