DESCRIPTION:

The Leitz family has a history in winemaking as far back as 1744. In 1985 Johannes Leitz took over the family winery in Rudesheim and has grown the estate from 2.9 hectares to 40 hectares and has gained national and international recognition for his wines all while staying true to his roots. He worked closely with the Ministry of Environment to restore traditional terraces above Rudesheim in the Berg Rottland and Berg Kaisersteinfels vineyards. The impressively steep Leitz vineyards are blessed with 100% southern exposure, thus ensuring optimal ripening

TASTING NOTES:

“Lively, tangy, fragrant. The Riesling itself is a beautiful balance of sweet fruit and lively acidity. On the nose you can expect lemondrops, peach stone, tangy lime and wildflowers atop crunchy green apples. The palate is undeniably off-dry on the entry with similar, lime, green apple and honeyed flavours. It has excellent concentration and focus with a long, tangy and mouthwatering finish to clean up.” Daenna Van Mulligen ~ The Wine Diva (January, 14th, 2016) 2014 vintage, 2015 not yet rated
