DESCRIPTION:

The Stefano Farina wines stem from centuries of traditional viticulture, where affinity to the land and careful and patient nurturing of the grapes have harmoniously blended to produce excellent and exciting wines. The reds are vigorous and lively. Their whites are delicate, crisp and fragrant. At every stage, commencing with the choice of terrain, to the final bottling, the Stefano Farina tradition combines expertise with modern technology and a passionate commitment to achieving excellence.

TASTING NOTES:

"A fragrant red, offering scents of flowers and berries. Firm and lean in profile, tightening up on the finish." Bruce Sanderson - Web only 2013 - current vintage not yet rated
